

Product Ideas	Hurdles (things in the way)	Advertisement and Marketing	Most basic features (essentials)
An app/program that organizes and reminds you of your assignments	Coding/program development knowledge	Telling students on campus about our program	Let the user enter their upcoming assignments
App has a checklist for every assignment due for the next week and states how long before they are due	Getting the word out about our program	Posting videos about the program on social media	Remind student of assignments before they are due
Makes suggestions on what assignments to complete based off of priority.	Time it takes to create the program	Sending public blackboard messages to our classes so all classmates can see it	(Possible) auto-detect assignments if compatible with Blackboard
Dark/light mode for accessibility	Front end development (making good UI)	Offering referral bonuses or premium features if you sign up early	Allow users to manually add assignments with title, due date, and class.
Achievement badges or XP system for completing assignments on time	We are only three students with limited resources		Edit and delete assignments easily.
	Data privacy and storage security		